

EntheoMedicine Presents Two Distinguished Expert Talks:

After the Ceremony: Therapeutic Potential of Ayahuasca

The Great Mystery: Entheogens, Consciousness and Awakening

Unity of Santa Barbara, 227 Arrellaga St. • Sat, March 23rd, 2019 • 6 - 9PM

TICKETS: EntheoMedicine.org

Rachel Harris, Ph.D. is the author of the popular book Listening to Ayahuasca: A New Hope for Depression, Addiction, PTSD, and Anxiety. She will share her research on the therapeutic potential of Ayahuasca for depression, PTSD, addictions, and anxiety. She will describe how people report an on-going personal relationship with the spirit of ayahuasca that provides healing and guidance beyond the ceremony.

At the end of her presentation you will be able to:

- » Know what psychological issues that ayahuasca might help.
- » Understand the importance of psychotherapy following an ayahuasca ceremony.
- » Appreciate the sacred nature of this healing medicine from its indigenous source.

Rak Razam is the world's leading experiential journalist. As a writer, film producer and culture maker, he bridges the worlds of shamanism, consciousness and popular culture.

He examines the connections between human consciousness, entheogenic medicines and planetary intelligence.

He is also author of the critically acclaimed book Aya Awakenings: A Shamanic Odyssey and its companion volume of interviews, The Ayahuasca Sessions.

At the end of his presentation you will be able to:

- » Identify how entheogenic plants help humans see their true non-dual nature.
- » Discover the potential to awaken within us all and why it is so critical now.
- » Identify the indigenous perception of time and why it matters for our collective survival.
